

OFFICIAL REPORTS REVEAL AMAZING EVENTS IN RUSSIA

U. S. Consulate Af- fairs at Moscow Turn- ed Over To Sweden

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—Official dispatches today from American Consul General Poole in Moscow lifted the curtain for a moment on what has been going on in Moscow and revealed amazing events.

Consul General Poole, after witnessing the violation of the French and British consulars and the arrests of the consuls and their staffs destroyed his code book and papers and turned the affairs of the American consulate over to the Swedish consul, at the same time demanding safe conduct from the country for himself and his associates.

French and British citizens have been arrested and the Bolsheviks have announced that they would hold the hostages because of the attack on the Soviet government by the British and French troops at Archangel.

Members of the French and British military missions stationed in Moscow were refused permission to leave the country in spite of a previous promise of safe conduct. It is possible that the sending of the Consul General Poole's telegram which began on July 29 and continued until August 6, the situation may have changed because it is reported that Lenin and Trotsky, the Bolshevik leaders have fled and the Soviet government in Moscow may have been overthrown. In that event Mr. Poole said the military missions may find themselves in a better situation. But should the situation be unchanged the American consul's general action in turning his office over to Sweden, will not affect the status of other American consuls in Russia as they have been working with the local governments throughout Russia where pro-Soviet feeling is strong. The story is an official announcement of his advice from Mr. Poole, as follows:

"The department of state has now received several telegrams from Consul General Poole at Moscow concerning recent events in that city. Following is a summary of them:

"One of the telegrams, similar in character to a previous message received through other channels states that on July 29 Lenin declared repeatedly before an official gathering of the Soviets that a state of war existed between the Russian republic and the allied powers. Because of this the diplomatic relations of the Soviet government with Great Britain and the consular representatives of France, Italy and the United States visited the commissariat for foreign affairs and inquired if Lenin's declaration should not be considered a declaration of war, involving the rupture of de facto relations and the departure of consular officials. It is stated that it was a state of defense rather than a state of war and that the government desired to continue its relations with the entente as it did with Germany under analogous circumstances.

"The consuls demanded that to be acceptable any explanation must be publicly made by the government of the government itself. They also pointed out that the question was inseparable from that of the departure of the members of the former military mission. After having agreed to facilitate the departure of these persons, in accordance with international law, the government, they said, had raised absolutely inadmissible objections. The foreign representatives also stated that they could not see in this attitude anything but confirmation of Lenin's declaration of the existence of a state of war. Tchitcherine said that he would give a reply within three days.

"The night of August 2, a reply was received from Tchitcherine. It stated that inasmuch as Lenin's utterances were made behind closed doors in a meeting at which an agent of the allies could be present only owing to a special courtesy on the part of the Soviet government, public explanations could not be given about non-public utterances.

"As to the military missions Tchitcherine said that negotiations had been begun with the German authorities to procure a safe passage from Petrograd to Stockholm for these officers, passage, thru Archangel being impossible because British cruisers had already begun the bombardment of the islands covering Archangel.

"A third report from Consul General Poole refers to the arrests of British and French citizens at Moscow. On the afternoon of Aug. 5, there was a conference between Tchitcherine and the consul-general of the United States with the following results:

"First: The Soviet government gave solemn assurances that allied persons having diplomatic or official character would not be molested.

Oil Industry Seeks to Avoid Federal Control

(By the Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—The oil industry thru the national petroleum war service committee has undertaken voluntarily to regulate its own affairs particularly the prices, premiums and movement of crude oil, and thus avoid direct government supervision under a plan announced here tonight by A. C. Bewford, president of the Standard Oil company of New Jersey and chairman of the committee.

The plan provides that the purchasing companies shall continue to purchase crude oil at the posted market price, that all purchasers who now pay a premium for crude oil be hereafter permitted to pay certain stated premiums, substantially the same as those now in effect and that all contracts made for the diversion of crude oil from its existing channels are to be first submitted to committee on conciliation and co-operation created by the trade.

M'ADOO PRESENTS PLAN FOR TAX ON EXCESS PROFITS

Meets With Committee Framing New Revenue Bill

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—Secretary McAdoo laid before the house ways and means committee today his plan for an excess profits tax, with an alternative war profits tax to be included in the new revenue bill. The plan proposes the retention of existing rates in the recent excess profits laws.

Secretary McAdoo estimated that the treasury plan would produce from $300,000,000 to $300,000,000 more than under the plan tentatively agreed to by the committee recently.

The secretary was accompanied by Assistant Secretaries Leffingwell and Lowe, Internal Revenue Commissioner Roper and other treasury experts.

Commissioner Roper and Assistant Secretary Leffingwell and Dr. T. S. Adams, chairman of the excess profits tax advisory board of the treasury will return to the committee tomorrow to present further views and the committee hopes to reach a satisfactory agreement by tomorrow night. At the conclusion of the conference, Secretary McAdoo and Chairman Kitchin joined in the prediction that they would get together on a plan and Secretary McAdoo added "that you can see that Mr. Kitchin and I have no bayonets for each other."

Despite the increased revenue claimed for the treasury plan, which Secretary McAdoo said would take care of exceptional cases like the Ford industry, some of the Standard Oil subsidiaries and others, it was stated tonight that the bill still falls short to the extent of between $500,000,000 and $1,000,000,000 of the $2,000,000,000 sought. A port tax on tea, coffee, cocoa, sugar, bananas and other tropical fruits, coming thru the ports may have to be resorted to, it was said, or some other new tax feature considered. The first break in the committee occurred when Representative Rainey of Illinois, after making a stand for increase of $1,000,000 and being voted down, announced that he would carry on the fight on the floor of the house.

Tobacco Market.

Danville, Va., Aug. 14.—The Danville tobacco market, one of the largest in the world, will begin the 1918-1919 season tomorrow with the prospect of breaking all previous records. The increasing world shortage in tobacco and the fact that the manufactured article has come to be a regular ration for the American troops in the field lead dealers to believe prices of last year will be eclipsed.

Knowing the demand for tobacco planters are culling each leaf carefully this year and the coarse leaves at the base of the stalk which in years gone by were frequently left in the field are being picked.

TURMOIL IN BOHEMIA.

London, Aug. 14.—Turmoil in Bohemia has resulted in the execution of 74 Czech soldiers and wholesale arrests in many raids, newspapers of Munich and Dresden say, according to an Exchange despatch from Zurich. The Hungarian garrisons have been reinforced and arms are being confiscated. Public and private meetings have been prohibited and several newspapers suppressed, while others are censored.

Munich newspapers say it is believed that even a slight incident will bring about a general uprising in Bohemia.

ALASKAN SELECT REPORTS FOR DUTY AFTER LONG TRIP

Covers 3,000 Miles By Steamers, Train, Dog Team and Buckboard

(By the Associated Press)
CAMP LEWIS, Tacoma, Wn., Aug. 14.—Leland L. Hudson, a select from Paxson, Alaska, 200 miles north of Fairbanks, is here after a trip of more than 3,000 miles in which he traveled by dog team, buckboard, mail barge, river steamer, railway and coastwise vessel.

Due to a mistaken idea on the part of the registrar at Payson that all men who registered there were obliged to give their address "the states," Hudson gave his mother's in Seattle. His card was sent there and on May 22, he was ordered by the Seattle board to report there for duty. He asked for a two weeks' extension because a boat did not leave Fairbanks until late in June but he received a reply to "take the first train or be classed as a deserter."

The nearest railway is at White Horse, more than 1,200 miles away. He left Paxson May 26, going forty two miles by dog team in two days in which he went thru a blizzard, then 72 miles by buckboard in two days in which he had four relays of horses, next down Tanana river and thru the Bates rapids for 100 miles on a mail barge and arrived at Fairbanks June 2. He took a steamer for Dawson, June 20 and went 500 miles down the Tanana and up the Yukon, arriving at White Horse July 5.

He took the White Horse Pass railroad from White Horse to Skagway paying $20 for a passage 110 miles long and arrived in Skagway in time to engage passage on a boat for Seattle, which left July 7, and arrived there July 9. He reported for duty here July 26, but it was not until yesterday, when he presented vouchers for his expenses, totalling nearly $400, that officers were aware of his long journey. He is a member of the 53rd company, 166th depot brigade.

AMERICANS NOT TO BE DENIED THEIR SHARE OF BATTLE

Dressed in Australian Uniforms to Get In- to Fighting

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—The sixteen Chicago boys recently decorated by King George for valor probably were engaged in the Fourth of July fight at Hamel and won their laurels because they were not to be denied their share of the fighting.

It is now known that the British commander felt some of the American troops had been long enough in training to go over the top and ordered them out of the line. With much regret the Americans retired and their Australian comrades with other Americans went over and helped take the town. When the casualties were counted, American soldiers were found in the dressing stations dressed in Australian uniforms.

It developed that the Americans after retiring to the rear, had found Australian comrades not in the fighting, traded uniforms with them and then worked their way back to the Australian units and went over the top with them. The troops which performed the heroic feat have not been finally identified, but it is known that Illinois troops were in the fighting on that day at Hamel and it is believed that the sixteen Chicago boys decorated by the king probably were among the dare-devil heroes who were not to be kept out of their chance.

PRISONERS ESCAPE FROM CASS CO. JAIL

Three Men Saw Their Way Thru Steel Door Tuesday Night.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 14.—Three men, one accused of murder, sawed their way thru a steel door of the Cass county jail where they were detained and escaped some time during last night, it was learned here today. A posse is searching the countryside near Virginia, Ill., for the prisoners.

The man held for murder was June Wayman of Beardstown, charged with killing Frank Norris. The others, held for minor offenses, were Charles McDonald and Bud Allen of Springfield.

ISSUE WARNINGS TO YOUNG GIRLS

Navy and War Department Warn Girls of Acquaintance They Make With Soldiers.

Washington, Aug. 14.—Warning to young girls to be watchful of the acquaintanceship they make with soldiers was issued today by the War and Navy department's commissions on training camp activities.

The commissions say the warning is not intended to reflect on the character of the men in the service, who, as a whole are clean and upstanding, and that it should not deter young women from participating in well ordered and wholesome entertainments in war camp communities. Nevertheless, the statement says a young woman should approach or converse familiarly with a man in uniform unless introduced by a mutual friend or unless he has been properly vouched for by the community organizations.

REPLY TO PROTEST.

Mexico City, Aug. 14.—Replying to a protest from Great Britain against the provisions of the oil decree of February 22 which was declared to be confiscatory and in violation of the rights of English companies holding oil claims, the Mexican government has declared that it does not recognize the right of any foreign government to protest against decrees of this nature.

It holds that by virtue of its sovereign rights the Mexican government is free to adopt such fiscal legislation as is necessary. It suggests that recourse to the courts would be the proper method of determining, whether the oil land decree is unjust and confiscatory.

TROOPS AND WORKER CLASH.

Montevideo, Uruguay, Tuesday, Aug. 13.—Two persons were killed and more than 200 injured wounded yesterday in clashes between troops and workers growing out of the general strike in progress here according to statements from strike headquarters tonight.

The minister of public instruction was wounded by troops during the afternoon because he was not recognized in the crowd.

Gala Day for U.S. Aviators Ends in One of Gloom

(By the Associated Press)
CINCINNATI, O., Aug. 14.—What promised to be a gala day for a number of American aviators from the aviation field at Dayton, headed by Major Claude K. Rhinehardt, who had flown from Mineola, and British planes led by Brigadier General Charles F. Lee, coming from Indianapolis, ended in gloom late this afternoon when Captain James Fitzmorris, of the British Royal Flying corps, was killed just west of Cincinnati. Captain Fitzmorris with other aviators had landed at the western hills country club and upon rising to complete the trip to Cincinnati his engine suddenly died and the plane plunged to the ground killing Fitzmorris instantly. A board of inquiry will make an official report on the accident.

Earlier in the day two of the planes which started from Dayton were forced to descend near Middleton, and both machines turned over. Lieutenant Earl Carroll, pilot was slightly hurt but continued on to Cincinnati in another machine.

BULLETINS

LONDON, Aug. 14.—The Germans have evacuated their forward positions at Beaumont Hamel, Serre, Puisieux, Mont, and Bucquet, lying in the region north of Albert, according to Field Marshal Haig's communication issued tonight.

LONDON, Aug. 14.—Twenty-one German airplanes were brought down and ten driven down out of control yesterday, according to an official statement issued on aviation operations. Six British machines are missing as a result of the aerial encounters.

British and American air squadrons co-operated in an attack on an enemy airdrome and destroyed six machines parked near the hangars.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 14.—Corn is in excellent condition generally in the north, is "firing" in central portions of the state and is "ruined or badly damaged" in southern counties as a result of the heat and drought, according to the crop report of the federal weather bureau for Illinois, issued here today.

SALINA, Kan., Aug. 14.—Safe arrival in England of Julius Rosenwald, Chicago, was announced in a cablegram to his brother, Louis, here today. Mr. Rosenwald is on a special mission to Europe as a member of the national council of defense.

JUAREZ, Aug. 14.—General Justino Cotero, federal commander at Pearson, Chihuahua, was killed by Martin Lopez' band when the passenger train was derailed and robbed at Consuelo Station Saturday.

OTTAWA, Kan., Aug. 14.—Squads of state guards from Greeley, Lane, Parker and Garrettsburg have surrounded a woods north of Greeley where it is believed are hiding several robbers who early today looted the Bank of Greeley of $3,000 and escaped after a revolver fight in which four men were wounded.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—"In Lorraine one of our patrols made a successful raid on the enemy's lines and brought back prisoners," General Pershing's night communiqué said. "In the Vosges a hostile raiding party was repulsed. With the exception of considerable artillery activity along the Vesle there is nothing further to report."

PARIS, Aug. 14.—Havas Agency.—The allied and neutral shipping sunk by enemy submarines during July amounted to 270,000 tons compared with 534,839 tons sunk in July, 1917.

CHICAGO, Aug. 14.—Fire destroyed $400,000 worth of lumber in the yards of the Red River Lumber company today. Much of the timber was said to have been intended for ship building.

ASKED TO REVIEW ORDER.

Washington, Aug. 14.—The supreme court was today asked to review an order of the governor-general of the Philippines directing deportation of R. McCulloch Dick, because of articles published at Manila in Dick's newspaper The Philippine Free Press reflecting on the island national guard.

NORTHWEST BONE DRY.

St. Paul, Minn., Aug. 14.—A large section of the northwest was made bone dry today by an order of the state public safety committee, which instituted prohibition in Red Lake county, as a war measure. This district was termed an "oasis" for northwestern Minnesota, the Dakotas and adjoining Canadian territory.

KILLED WHEN PLANES COLLIDED.

Fort Worth, Texas, Aug. 14.—Cadet William R. Turnstall, son of John R. Turnstall, of Brookfield, Mass., was killed today when his airplane collided with another machine several thousand feet in the air. The second machine landed safely and the cadet occupant escaped uninjured.

GERMAN HORDES FORCED TO GIVE MORE GROUND

Are Beaten Back By French and By British Forces

North and south of the Somme the Germans have lost further important grounds. In the former region they have evacuated their positions over a five mile front to the British north of Albert while in the latter they have been beaten back in the hill and wooded district just north of the Oise river by the French.

German front line trenches at Beaumont Hamel, Serre, Puisieux, au-Mont and Bucquet have been found untenable by the enemy in the face of the recent activity by the British all along the line from Albert to Arras, while the French have persevered in their violent attacks against the Germans on the sector which dominates the lower portion of the Picardy plain and the Oise Valley and have encroached further upon the Lassigny Massif and the Thiescourt plateau and farther south have captured the important town of Ribecourt.

Unofficial reports have announced the capture of Lassigny by the French and of all the German positions between the western outskirts of Bray-sur-Somme and Etinehem by the Somme. There is, however, no official confirmation of them.

From the Somme to the Oise, except in the latter region where the French have made further gains, the Germans seemingly have had further success in holding back the allied troops and still are in possession of Chaumes and Roye, upon the capture of which the efforts of the British and French have been centered. On this central part of the battle front the enemy continues to deliver counter-attacks and has further reinforced his line with men and guns and is using them without stint to retain his positions, realizing that their capture would spell disaster.

The giving up of front line trenches north of Albert possibly may mean that the German high command foresees the ultimate success of the American and British operations along the Somme and is readjusting the German positions to meet any eventuality. In any event the retrograde movement seemingly indicates that the ten mile salient between Beaumont Hamel and Bray on the Somme, with Albert its apex, now must give way in order that the German front here may come into alignment with that in the south across the Somme. In fact it seems probable that the Germans propose to readjust their front from the front to Arras and possibly further northward. The capture of Ribecourt by the French marks an important epoch in the offensive which as for its immediate purpose the freeing of the region between the Somme and the Oise.

Thru Ribecourt lies an open route up the Oise valley to Noyon—a route by rail and the big national thoroughfare, not to mention canal which parallels the roadways for the greater part of the way. Noyon is only a little more than six miles northeast of Ribecourt.

Altho they are still encountering violent resistance the French are continuing to make progress thru the wooded and hilly country between the Matz and the Oise, where the Germans from recesses in the forests, on spurs and in the canyons are using machine guns innumerable. Gas also is being loosened in great quantities by the enemy.

Almost the Thiescourt plateau and the other high ground on this sector is now in the hands of the French. Along the Vesle the Germans have again made unsuccessful attacks against the French and Americans who are still holding their positions. In the mountain region of the western Italian front the Italians have captured several important positions from the Austrians.

Fight for Key Positions.

With the French Army in France, Aug. 14.—French forces fighting for the key positions of Thiescourt Massif and the St. Claude and Escouvillon farms are progressing slowly. North of Gurly, where the Germans are installed in the old French trenches of 1914, they have gained no ground. The enemy here is a lucky moment tumbled into ready made fortified positions.

As the enemy retreats he is piling up his slow moving material and accumulating an increasing number of guns and quantities of munitions. The French in advancing have tended to outstrip their artillery and there are no tanks to assist the infantry. The French are advancing against the line which is thinly held but which is bristling with machine guns and is fighting in the atmosphere of mustard gas. Yet they have wrested dominant positions on the battlefield from the enemy.

OIL MAGNATE DIES.

Aurora, Ill., Aug. 14.—W. B. Cowan, president of the Standard Oil company of Indiana, died at his home in Wheaton last night, aged sixty years. He became ill during the recent hot spell.

"Gas" Not From German U-Boat As First Reported

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—Altho final reports of the investigation into the gas attack on Smith's Island, North Carolina, last Saturday have not yet reached the navy department, there were strong intimations today that "gas" was not from a German submarine as first reported. No explanation of the incident, however, has been offered and none probably will be until complete information is at hand. It is understood there is reason to believe that no submarine was in the vicinity of the island at the time six men at the coast guard station and lighthouse were reported to have been overcome. The theory that a submarine had discharged gas-laden oil on those waters never was accepted by many naval experts and fishermen living in that vicinity have insisted that no submarine could have approached close enough to the island to discharge gas that would have remained effective until the oil carrying it had drifted in with the tide.

SUBMARINE SINKS OIL TANKER NEAR NEW YORK HARBOR

Five Members of the Crew Officially Re- ported Dead

(By the Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Aug. 14.—Five members of the crew of the oil tanker Frederick R. Kellogg, sunk by a submarine last night off Ambrose Channel were today officially reported as dead, as follows:

Samuel L. Johnson, second assistant engineer, American, New York City.

J. Kramer, third assistant engineer, native of Norway.

Francisco de Louga, Portuguese mess boy.

William Stillman, U. S. Cadet, Shelton, Conn.

Chester Cubberly, U. S. Cadet, Long Branch, N. J.

An officer and fireman still missing, have not yet been identified.

New York, Aug. 14.—A German submarine, approaching the very gates of New York harbor, sunk the oil tanker Frederick R. Kellogg last night. Five members of the crew brought here today reported that seven of the crew are missing. These survivors were picked up by an American steamship.

The Frederick R. Kellogg, the latest victim of German submarine warfare off the American coast, was a new tank ship of 4,450 tons, owned by the Pan-American Petroleum Transport company of Los Angeles. She was 425 feet long, with a beam of 57 feet and was built at Oakland, Cal., last year. The tanker was commanded by Captain White and was bound from San Pedro, Mexico, for Boston.

Washington, Aug. 14.—Information to the navy department today regarding the sinking of an American oil tank steamer by a submarine last night, said the vessel was torpedoed thirty miles south of the mouth of Ambrose Channel, which would be near Barnegat, N. J.

Thirty five men were landed and seven were reported missing. The name of the steamer as given in the navy department despatches was the Henry S. Kellogg, but the vessel was believed to be the Frederick R. Kellogg, a new steamer. Neither name is on record at the department. Few details of the sinking were contained in the despatches.

New York, Aug. 14.—Torpedoed without warning at 6:10 o'clock last evening, the Kellogg sank in three minutes, said members of her crew coming ashore here today. The force of the explosion was terrific, they declared and the seven missing men who were in the engine room are believed to have been killed. No submarine was seen, according to Captain White.

The survivors in small boats rowed for three hours toward shore when a freighter took them aboard. One of the crew reported his narrow escape when he was caught below decks by the rapidly sinking ship. He was carried down by the suction, he asserted, but swam to the surface and reached one of the boats. Navy officials enjoined silence upon the survivors before they could complete their accounts of the disaster.

CELEBRATE WEDDING.

Chicago, Aug. 14.—Mr. and Mrs. George W. Hotchkiss are celebrating their 62nd wedding anniversary today. Each is 86 years old. They were married on August 14, 1856. Mr. Hotchkiss is the oldest lumber man in the United States, the oldest surviving 49er and the oldest member of the United States Order, having joined the Simeco lodge in 1857.

LOOK FOR NEW DRIVE AGAINST HUN POSITIONS

Expect Move as Result of Slowing Up of Al- lies in Picardy Zone

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 14.—A new drive against the German positions in Flanders or between the Oise and Scheldt, it is expected by many army officers here as a result of the slowing up of the advance in the Picardy zone.

Outlining the situation today General March chief of staff confirmed his statements to pointing out that Germans have been forced back until they are not within fifty miles of Paris at any point. The opinion prevailed among other officers that the struggle around Roye and Cassigny would soon terminate in the capture of those points to be followed by the taking of Noyon.

In his discussion General March said General Pershing now has 1,250,000 American troops organized in the first army corps. Presumably the Americans on the British left flank in Picardy identified by the chief of staff as the 131 infantry of the 33rd (Illinois National Guard) division, are among those still brigaded for training.

It appeared possible to some officers that organization of the first American army might be followed by an all-American attack at some point on the line which it holds beyond Verdun where there has been no real fighting. No reports official or unofficial have been received however, throwing any light on General Pershing's plans or the part assigned to him by Field Marshal Foch in the present offensive campaign.

INTERNED GERMAN DIE OF TYPHOID FEVER

Drink Unfiltered Water, With Hope that Their Illness Would Prevent Transfer to Military Prison Camp.

Asheville, N. C., Aug. 14.—Half a dozen German civilians interned at Hot Springs, N. C., are reported dead of typhoid fever and 165 ill as a result of drinking unfiltered water from French Broad River with the hope that their illness would prevent the war department from transferring them to the military prison camp at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga.

All the patients have been transferred to a local hospital camp and plans for sending the remainder of the interned enemies to Oglethorpe are being completed.

The camp at Hot Springs is to be fitted up as a hospital for American soldiers.

There have been eleven deaths from typhoid fever among German civilians and sailors interned at Hot Springs, N. C., and 150 cases. There were reports today that some of the Germans had drunk unfiltered river water in the hope that illness would prevent the government from transferring them to Fort Oglethorpe, but this was denied by camp officials. Shallow wells are blamed for the infection.

BARNEY HAS NARROW ESCAPE AT SPRINGFIELD

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 14.—Barney Oldfield, veteran motor race driver, in an attempt to lower the mile track record in his "Golden Submarine" at the state fair here today, skidded in making the east turn, crashed into the fence and turned over, his car bursting into flames as the gasoline became ignited. Oldfield escaped without injury, although his hair was singed by the flames. His car was badly damaged.

ASK FOR THREE CENT RATE.

The manufacture of ice cream has been ordered discontinued in the city of Washington to conserve ice and soda fountains may be ordered to close down. It is a hot old place just now.

Debs continues to decry the war and declares it a "war of capitalists." The war was really made possible and certain by the Kaiser at the head of a powerful nation, armed and prepared to make things uncomfortable for the nations of the earth, and there are few men in this country that believe with Debs.

RELIEF WORK.

The Red Cross war council has made an appropriation of $900,000 as an additional contribution to the American committee for Armenian and Syrian relief. The money is to be contributed in three installments of $300,000 each to cover the months of August, September and October.

During the past year the American Red Cross has made contributions to the American committee for Armenian and Syrian relief totaling $3,000,000. This money has been and is being used by the committee for relief work in Armenia, Syria, Persia, the Caucasus, Mesopotamia, Palestine and other countries in the Near East. It was stated that reports from Persia, the Mesopotamia, Asia Minor and Syria all indicated intense suffering, with people living in the streets from starvation and that diseases, such as typhus and cholera, were spreading rapidly. As a result of such conditions the Armenian and Syrian relief committee has been confronted with overwhelming demands for money to be expended during the next few months.

THE STATE BANKING LAW.

In discussing recently injunction proceedings brought in the Sangamon county circuit court to prevent the submission of the Buck-Austin private bank control bill to a vote in November, Judge Frank W. Burton declared the question of whether the measure had been legally passed by the general assembly was one for the supreme court to determine. The bill for injunction was filed by Louis G. Spies of Champaign, Kan-kakee county, a private banker, who alleged the bill signed by Governor Frank O. Lowden was not the same as that enacted by the legislature, an amendment, it was declared, having been omitted in grossing the measure. Judge Burton dismissed the first bill on the ground that it was filed under the wrong statute. Later he allowed a temporary injunction when a new bill was filed, but dismissed it for want of equity. The supreme court reconvenes in October, and will have time to decide the issue before the election in November. It is the intention of the secretary of state, however, to proceed with arrangements for putting the measure to a vote as the no suspension had been cast on the bill. Approximately 500 private banks in Illinois would come under state supervision if the Buck-Austin bill should become law. Governor Lowden and the present administration strongly favored the control bill, and considered the statute among the most important enacted by the fiftieth general assembly. A vote of the people on the measure is made necessary by a constitutional provision which says any change in state banking laws must have the sanction of the people at the polls.

ALIEN ENEMIES.

A total of 4,248 German alien enemies, 2,123 males and 2,125 females, have registered in the southern federal district of Illinois in accordance with the president's order of several months ago. The district comprises twenty-three counties. "Some idea of the magnitude of the registration of these 4,248 aliens may be had," said Marshal Dallman, "from the fact that four photographs were required for each registrant or a total of 16,992 photographs. There were fourteen finger prints taken in each case."

Each registration affidavit shows the photograph and contains a complete description and summary of the life of the registrant. Complete files are kept both in the office of the marshal and at Washington.

Registration in cities of 5,000, as announced by Marshal Dallman, were as follows:

RIPPLING RHYMS

By Walt Mason

USEFUL LESSONS.
The war is teaching me a lot that seems well worth the knowing; each day some lesson hits the spot, and keeps my knowledge growing. I'm learning how to salt the dimes, which may avert disaster; this was a gift in form of money I never seemed to master. On payday I would draw my money, and then would let it flicker, and always, ere the week was done, I had to soak my tucker. But war has shown me it's a sin to waste a single nickel, and now I take my hard earned tin, and put it down in pickle. It's hard to start this saving scheme, for one who's been a spender; he thinks that thrift's a tightwad scheme—he'd blow his legal tender. But having salted down a plunk, the next is quick to follow; he finds collecting silver junk beats blowing it, all hollow. The war is teaching lots of things to put away the shilling; slim comfort, you will say, perhaps, for all the blood and killings. But it is good to know that war has one redeeming feature (perhaps that's what it's fashioned for)—it's useful as a teacher.

THE BOSTON SYMPHONY

and the Chautauqua Program

Tues., Aug. 27 and Wed., Aug. 29
The acme of perfection in high class program building is attained on the days the illustrious Boston Symphony Sextette appears at the chautauqua.

This selected group of players has been chosen from the Boston Symphony Orchestra, generally accepted as being the world's greatest orchestra. The instrumentation of the group is such that the program presented is not only orchestra music, but it is far more—it is the artistry of mature men, who are at the head of their class, applied to ensemble music written for their instrumentation. Mr. Kunze, the leader, arranges programs that please his audiences and very graciously responds to encores. Ordinarily the chautauqua management does not repeat a musical organization, but this sextette brought so many requests from those who heard it for a return engagement that it was booked again.

On the program with the Boston on Tuesday will appear Lora do Taft for two lectures, one of them the illustrated, "How Statues are Made in a Sculptor's Studio" with demonstrations on the stage by an assistant. Mr. Taft is a ready and witty speaker and a thorough artist. With the Boston on Wednesday will appear Mr. Chas. B. Griffith in "Othello." Mr. Griffith is a rare chautauqua attraction. A busy man, he cannot resist the demand to do a little Shakespearean work for the chautauqua. He ranks with the best Shakespearean artists and his coming will be a great treat.

Jacksonville Lodge No. 570, A. F. and A. M., will hold a stated meeting to-night at 7:30. Visiting brethren welcome.

STARR CAMP R. N. A. HAS SERVICE FLAG
At the regular meeting of Star camp No. 171, R. N. A., held Tuesday evening, the members were agreeably surprised when a beautiful service flag was presented by members who are employees of Central hospital. The flag contained one star, in honor of Miss Ella M. Williams, now in service at Camp Sherman, Chillicothe, Ohio. The presentation speech was made by Mrs. Mary Now and the response on behalf of the camp was made by the Oracle, Pauline Gomes. It is probable that at least two other members of the camp will have entered the service by October 1, and the close of the year will probably find a number of stars on the service flag.

Following the business session Tuesday evening the members enjoyed a social hour and a later refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

WILL HAVE TRIAL IN SPRINGFIELD

John German of this county, who is charged with making disloyal utterances, will have a hearing in the federal court in Springfield today. His trial was called a number of weeks ago and a continuance was granted until August 15. Mrs. A. M. Masters, William Coverly and others will be the witnesses, as they are alleged to have heard disloyal remarks made by the accused man.

VISITING FRIENDS HERE

O. B. Williams of Quincy, of the class of 1907 Illinois college, was in the city yesterday visiting friends. Already Mr. Williams is looking forward to the 75th anniversary of Phi Alpha society two years hence.

CHRISTIAN SCIENTISTS

AID ALL IN SERVICE

Welfare Work Conducted in 45 Army and Navy Concentration Centers.

Christian Science camp welfare work is now being carried on in forty-five army and navy camps in the United States under direction of the Christian Science War Relief and Camp Welfare Committee of the First Church of Christ, Scientist in Boston. There are at present about seventy men and fifteen women engaged in this work, the women serving mainly as welfare room attendants.

Conducted at first independently, the camp welfare work has been merged with the war relief work which the Christian Scientists were doing in foreign countries before the United States entered the war. For both these purposes about one million dollars have been raised.

The aim of the Christian Science camp workers is to be as helpful as possible to all the men in the camps, whether or not they are Christian Scientists, and particularly to give assistance which may not be available at the time or place through any of the other camp welfare agencies.

Quick communication

Cooperating with the committee in Boston, there is a Christian Science camp welfare committee in each state. The committee in the home state of a soldier or sailor cooperates by mail and telegraph with the committee of the state in which he is camped or stationed to form a direct and constant link between the soldier or sailor and his relatives. Thereby the relatives are quickly made acquainted with needs of their boy at the front.

The net result, for which the Christian Science committees and camp workers have received many commendations, has been a noticeable raising of the morale of many men in the service and the development of a better feeling at home regarding the participation of their boys in the service.

The camp workers say there is an increased willingness among the commanding officers and surgeons to allow Christian Science treatment for those men who ask for it, and many Christian Science healings have been recorded. Recently, two requests for Christian Science services in hospital wards were received by camp workers from medical nurses who had observed the beneficial effects of Christian Science treatment. Chicago, Aug. 14.—Timothy J. Murphy, a freight handler, is the father of 21 children, 18 of whom are living. And the 18 are engaged in war work. Eight sons, all of them 6 feet or more tall, and the lightest one weighing 263 pounds are in military service and the 10 daughters are engaged in Red Cross and other kinds of war work.

"Mother's maiden name was Mary A. O'Connor, and she was born on Capitol Hill, in Washington, D. C.," said Private Thomas J. Murphy, stationed at Camp Grant, Rockford, Ill. "Mother played about the capitol yard when a child. Maybe we inherited some of our patriotism."

The brothers are Major Michael J. Murphy, who has been a surgeon in the rear of the front since the Spanish-American war; Timothy J. Daniel, Albert, Edward C. Thomas J. Cornelius T., and Richard W.

MAJOR McDUGALL'S GOOD RECORD.

A Petersburg paper recently had the following: "Major C. E. McDougall and daughter, Nettie Helen, of Jacksonville, attended the funeral of Maj. McDougall's brother-in-law, Hobart Hamilton, in this city. This day was the 80th anniversary of Maj. McDougall's birth. The Major was the recipient of many congratulations of friends. He is in robust health and hale and hearty."

"Major McDougall has recently made a number of patriotic addresses of an inspirational nature and has taken an active part in helping the boys who are on their way to war. He served in the Civil War; was wounded, losing the forefinger of his right hand and at another time a leg. He lost his leg from his head in battle. His many friends who know him when he lived in Petersburg are glad to know that both in health and in spirit the Major is still on the firing line."

A PATRIOTIC PREACHER

Mr. Hyde is pastor of the Jennie Grey Memorial Methodist Episcopal church of Chicago and is enjoying a brief vacation seeing the country and taking some fresh air. He has two sons and two daughters. The sons are in the service and the youngest daughter is in France where she has been serving the Red Cross for a year.

MISS VENNEN IN MICHIGAN.

Miss Ida B. Vennen, formerly superintendent of Passavant hospital, is now at Crosswell, Mich. Writing to a Jacksonville friend Miss Vennen states that the weather even in Michigan recently has been almost unbearably warm. The thermometer one day recently was 116 degrees. Miss Vennen is with her sister and is not yet able to take up regular work.

RED CROSS HOME SERVICE.

Information for Soldiers' and Sailors' Families, Issued by Department of Civilian Relief

Where and When and How to Write for Information.

Soldiers' and Sailors' families will find the following instructions of use in writing to the various offices in Washington for information concerning their men in the service. It is important that such relatives should know which is the correct office to write, now to address that office accurately, and what facts to include in the letter so that the information desired may be promptly obtained. It is also important that such relatives should know what to write so that inquiries will not be made prematurely.

Compensation, Insurance, or Burial Expenses.

If an enlisted man dies, his relatives who are entitled to compensation, insurance, or burial expenses, either or all under the war-risk insurance law, should promptly notify the Bureau of War-Risk Insurance, as follows:

Pvt. John Howard Smith, deceased, August 12, 1918, Serial No. 85634, formerly of Company L, 125th Infantry, American Expeditionary Force.

Bureau of War-Risk Insurance, Attention of Compensation and Insurance Claims Section, Treasury Department, Washington, D. C.

Gentlemen: On or about April 12, 1918, my son, the above-named enlisted man, died in the service. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Elizabeth Brown Smith, and two children, John Howard Smith, Jr., 10 years old, and Elizabeth Smith, 5 years old. Their address is 84 Pine Street, Rockford, Ill.

His father, Joseph Walter Smith and myself live at 132 Willow Street, Rockford, Ill. We were both dependent upon him for support to the extent of $10 per week jointly for the last three years. He also leaves one brother and two sisters, as follows:

Henry Smith, 43 Platt Street, Rockford, Ill.
Kate Higgins Smith, 132 Willow Street, Rockford, Ill.
Jane Smith Porter, (Mrs. William Townsend Porter), 45 Lake Street, Chicago, Ill.

There are no other members of his own immediate family. Will you please furnish the necessary forms upon which to file claims for compensation, insurance, and burial expenses?

Very truly yours,
Mary Hunter Smith,
(Mrs. Joseph Walter Smith),
132 Willow Street, Rockford, Illinois

I should be clearly understood that the inclusion of information concerning members of the family other than the widow, child, dependent mother, or dependent fathers does not mean that these other persons are entitled to compensation. Information concerning these other persons is included merely because they are potential beneficiaries of any insurance that the enlisted man may have taken out.

Liberty Bonds Subscribed for By Soldier, and Not Delivered.

If a soldier has subscribed for Liberty Bonds and has not received them after completing the necessary payments thereon and after sufficient time has elapsed for their distribution, he or she or one on his behalf should write the following letter to the Deposits and Allotments Branch, Central Disbursing Division, Office of the Quartermaster General.

Pvt. John Howard Smith, Serial No. 85634, Company L, 125th Infantry, American Expeditionary Force, Age 26 years. Entered service, July 30, 1917. Deposits and Allotments Branch, Central Disbursing Division, Office of the Quartermaster General, United States Army, Washington, D. C.

Gentlemen: On October 12, 1917, at Camp Meade, Md., the above named enlisted man subscribed for two bonds of $50 each of the second Liberty loan, thru the Federal Reserve Bank of New York City, each to be paid for in 10 installments of $5, to be deducted monthly from his pay. He was then a private in Company E, 122d Field Artillery.

He designated me, his sister, Kate Higgins Smith, of 132 Willow Street, Rockford, Ill., as the person to whom such bonds should be sent. These bonds have not been received, although it is now 10 weeks since payment of the last installment was made. Please inform me when they will be delivered to me.

Very truly yours,
Kate Higgins Smith,
132 Willow Street, Rockford, Ill.

The subscriptions of most soldiers for the second or third Liberty loans were recorded thru the Federal Reserve Bank of New York City. In all such cases the above letter should be used. If, however, the soldier subscribed thru some local bank, he should take the matter up with that institution.

Do not write such a letter in reference to a bond of the second Liberty loan until after October 1, 1918, nor as to a bond of the third Liberty loan until after March 1, 1919.

No Letter from Enlisted Man Abroad.

If relatives of a soldier or sailor serving abroad have received no word from him for an unreasonable length of time and desire to inquire as to his welfare, they should write directly to the Bureau of Communication, American Red Cross, as follows:

Pvt. John Howard Smith, Serial No. 85634, Company L, 125th Infantry, American Expeditionary Force, Age 26 years. Entered service, July 30, 1917.

Bureau of Communication, American Red Cross, Washington, D. C.

Gentlemen: I have received no letter from my son named above, who has been abroad since last May. Can you secure any word for me as to his welfare?

Very truly yours,
Mary Hunter Smith,
(Mrs. Joseph Walter Smith),
132 Willow Street, Rockford, Ill.

Rumors to be Disregarded.

Relatives should not write to the Bureau of Communication on the highest rumor that their man is wounded, killed, or missing. In most instances such rumors are false, and frequently they have been circulated as enemy propaganda. Except in rare instances, if the man is wounded, killed or missing, official notification from the War Department will have been promptly sent to the emergency address which he gave. However, if the statement that the man is wounded, killed, or missing comes from an apparently reliable source, a letter should be addressed to the Bureau of Communication.

Enlisted Man Reported Wounded.

If the relatives of an enlisted man have received word that he has been wounded, and they wish to learn further particulars, they should write directly to the Bureau of Communication, American Red Cross, as follows:

Pvt. John Howard Smith, Serial No. 85634, Company L, 125th Infantry, American Expeditionary Force, Age 26 years. Entered service, July 30, 1917.

Bureau of Communication, American Red Cross, Washington, D. C.

Gentlemen: I have received official notification from the War Department (or I have been informed from a credible source) that my son, named above, has been wounded. Can you secure for me any further particulars?

Very truly yours,
Mary Hunter Smith,
(Mrs. Joseph Walter Smith),
132 Willow Street, Rockford, Ill.

Enlisted Man Reported Dead.

If the relatives of an enlisted man are notified of his death, they may obtain further particulars as to his death by writing to the Bureau of Communication, American Red Cross, as follows:

Pvt. John Howard Smith, Serial No. 85634, Company L, 125th Infantry, American Expeditionary Force, Age 26 years. Entered service, July 30, 1917.

Bureau of Communication, American Red Cross, Washington, D. C.

Gentlemen: I have received official notification from the War Department (or I have been informed from a credible source) of the death of my son named above. Can you give me further particulars?

Very truly yours,
Mary Hunter Smith,
(Mrs. Joseph Walter Smith),
132 Willow Street, Rockford, Ill.

A GAME BIRD

The wood duck, a game bird not uncommon in Illinois, is a waterfowl and entitled to protection given all such fowls by state laws, even though it does nest in trees. This is the decision of the division of fish and game, Illinois department of agriculture.

The ruling was made as a result of a request from a sportsman who said he was under the impression that wood ducks could be shot at any time.

Between September 1 and December 15 waterfowl may be hunted.

Only six birds found in Illinois are unprotected, it was stated. They are the English sparrow, the blackbird, the bluejay, the crow, the chicken hawk and the cormorant.

WILL VISIT IN WASHINGTON.

Mrs. A. M. Masters and daughters, Miss Eleanor and Florence, will leave tonight for Washington, D. C. They will make a visit there with Mrs. S. D. Masters and daughter, Mrs. Newcomb. They are in Washington now while Capt. Newcomb is in the government service.

Miss Dorothy Farrell has returned from Libertyville, where she was a guest at the home of Lieut. and Mrs. Applebee. Miss Farrell was also in Chicago at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Baldwin.

One Diamond For Every Three Cars In America

MOTORISTS are buying Diamond Tires in such numbers that over 2,000,000 are now in service—easily, one for every three cars in America.

This patronage is significant when you consider that the big demand for Diamonds comes from motorists who have used them in previous years and insist upon Diamond mileage again.

Such demand can be commanded only by tires of super-value.

A Diamond Tube is likely to outwear your car itself. Made in Gray and Red, in sizes to fit any make of tire.

Emphatically Asserts Worn Out, Lagging Men Can Quickly Become Vigorous and Full of Ambition

7 A DAY FOR 7 DAYS

Don't blame the man who is perpetually tired; his blood needs more red corpuscles and his brain and nerves are craving for food. Given the right kind of medicine any tired-out, inactive, lagging fellow can quickly be made into a real, live, energetic and even ambitious man.

So says a student of the nervous system who advises all men and women who feel worn out and who find it hard to get up ambition enough to take a regular job to get a package of Bio-feren at any drugist.

This is the new discovery that pharmacists are recommending because it is not expensive and speedily puts vigor and ambition into people who despaired of ever amounting to anything in life.

People whose nerves have been wrecked by too rapid living, too much tobacco or alcohol, have regained their old-time confidence and energy in less than two weeks.

No matter from what cause your nerves went back on you; no matter how run down, nervous or tired out you are, get an original package of Bio-feren at once. Take two tablets after each meal and one before bed-time—seven a day for seven days—then one after each meal till all are gone.

Then if you still lack ambition; if your nerves are not steady and you haven't the energy that red-blooded, keen-minded men possess, your purchase money will be gladly returned.

Note to Physicians: There is no secret about the formula of Bio-feren. It is printed on every package. Here it is: Leclithin; Calcium Glycophosphate; Iron Peptonate; Manganese Peptonate; Ext. Nux Vomica; Powdered Gentian; Phenolphthalein; Glycerin; Capsicum; Kola.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

OLD TIME CLERKS

By Ensley Moore

(Member Illinois State Historical Society)

There are clerks and clerks. This paper refers to those who acted in that capacity in store of Jacksonville, before or about the time of the Civil War.

And, by the way, that strife interfered with people's plans and occupations, just as the present conflict is mixing up people and things now.

In the 'fifties' Kibbe and Lathrop used to keep a store, mostly drygoods, with some groceries or country produce, in the southeast corner room under what is now called the Park Hotel, north-west corner of North Main street and the square.

Dewey, Reed, Harden, Veitch and Turner.

Five of their clerks are recalled. The first was a handsome, slim, tall New Englander—or Yankee—named William K. Dewey. He was gentlemanly in manner, dressed well and neatly—as everything that was in vogue.

He was a great Methodist, and was especially so to country maidens or city girls. At any rate, he captured one of our prettiest young ladies and they got back from their wedding tour somewhere East, about the first of September 1860. Mr. Dewey had that season gone into business for himself, in the firm of McDonald, King and Dewey, where Knowles is now.

Wm. H. Reed, was a taller, light complexioned man than Mr. Dewey. He was also thicker and wider. He was a great Methodist, as Dewey was an Episcopalian, and remained here a few years. He also got a Jacksonville girl, and went to Kansas City, then to the far Northwest. He became quite a railroad man. Reference was made to him in these sketches in 1917.

James Monroe Harden, known as Jim and as Monroe, was the son of a printer who, at one time acted as publisher of the Journal. He acquired a wife from Naples, and went to Peoria and to Rushville. He lived where the Scott block now is, part of his time here.

One day, several years ago, "Billy" Veitch disappeared from the store school, but he turned up all right at Newman and Wells', then at Kibbe and Lathrop's, and he attended Illinois college and afterwards turned into a bank cashier, finally becoming a broker.

Mr. Veitch was a Methodist, but someone persuaded a Presbyterian lady to take him. He is still in love with his own denomination, and was one of the managers in getting the present fine Grace church edifice constructed.

A man named Turner, of the Yankee persuasion, landed in on K. and L., and stayed long enough to secure the daughter of a well-to-do third ward doctor. She died soon, and Mr. Turner went away from here.

Kibbe and Lathrop made a point of having lively and presentable assistants.

Gregory, Landers and Hook. David Robb was an early and long time merchant here. He was a man of style and get up, and one of his clerks was Abraham R. Gregory. Mr. Gregory still walks out streets in good shape, altho Mr. Robb passed away in 1887. Gregory has since been an alderman and member of the Board of Education, as well as connected with county offices, and has enough business of his own to keep him busy.

It took the writer a long time to pick out Gregory from Robert D. Landers, another assistant at Robb's, altho the two men did not look so much alike. But they both were of light complexion and had light hair, but Landers was considerably smaller than Gregory.

Mr. Landers was a Marylander as Mr. Gregory was a Pennsylvanian. Mr. Landers afterwards clerked in the Wm. P. Barr store, and became a partner there. He was in ill health latterly, and went to California, from whence he went on to the further Sunset Land.

Thomas J. Hook was a Jacksonville boy who began his business life as an active assistant in everything required of a boy in a printing office, especially in the old days when the boy "rolled" some, and put the rest of the ink on his face. Then Thomas seemed to be a fixture at Robb's, and a devotee of young ladies.

He became head of T. J. Hook & Co., after Mr. Robb died, then went to Omaha and Los Angeles, then back to Denver; finally dying in Philadelphia, a year or two ago. He, too, was a great Episcopalian.

King, Beck, Pitner and Loomis.

John Shelton made a pilgrimage from Woodson to Jacksonville, before the war, and not know Wm. D. Crowell, who clerked for his brother-in-law, J. C. Smith, who had a golden bee-hive as his sign, next door to Hockenull's on the east side.

Gov. Yates appointed Crowell, commander of the State Arsenal, at Springfield, with the title of colonel. Col. Crowell came back here a while after the war and stayed several years, then went West, and finally to Florida, where he died a few years ago. He was a "Buckeye", and great secret society man.

Dr. John W. Craig.

Another well known young fellow was John W. Craig, who clerked for Dr. Wm. S. Edgar. He got into the medical department in the service, and became a doctor after the war, going to Arcadia to practice. He was a great Republican, and almost the standing secretary of the county conventions of that party.

D. R. Fitch.

Darius Runkle Fitch was an early clerk for George C. Scott, next to McDonald's on the north side of the square. He was known as "Doc", and became a merchant on his own account. He went to Omaha, Neb., about twenty-five years ago, and died there somewhere about ten years ago. His wife, Miss Hettie Alexander, was a sister of J. T. Alexander, the great cattle man.

Another clerk of Mr. Scott's whom most everybody knew was Scott's nephew, "Bill" Dickson. He was from Pennsylvania, as was Mr. Scott.

CHAPIN RESIDENT WEDS IN CINCINNATI

Mrs. Elsie Berry Becomes Bride of Waldo Hermett — Groom Engaged in Railroad Work — Other Chapin News.

Chapin, Aug. 14.—Word has been received of the marriage of Mrs. Elsie Berry and Mr. Waldo Hermett in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Mrs. Berry left here last Friday morning, going to Beardstown, and taking the evening train from there to Cincinnati, where she was met by Mr. Hermett. They were quietly married Saturday morning about 10 o'clock. Mrs. Berry is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Duckett of Chapin. Mr. Hermett's home was formerly near Golden, but he had worked for the railroad here for some time, then finding he could do better in Cincinnati, he left for that place, where he has been working for the past several months. The young people have many friends in Chapin who wish them much happiness in their new home.

Miss Lillian Smith of Jacksonville is visiting relatives here for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Polite and children of Bloomington and Mrs. Chad Scott of Chapin, motored to Roadhouse yesterday, expecting to motor to Springfield to the fair today.

Miss Hazel Antrobus is visiting her friend Miss Harriet Fagin in Griggsville for a few days.

Miss Blanche Johnson is visiting the fair today.

SON ARRIVES OVER THERE. Charles Lashmet of the vicinity of Franklin has received a letter from his son Fred telling of his safe arrival in France.

BOYS IN HOSPITALS. A letter written by Dr. Josephine Milligan to a friend here stated that she had seen a number of wounded American boys while engaged in her work "somewhere in France." On one occasion recently a wounded lad asked her name and where she lived in the United States, and then informed her that his home was in Griggsville, and that he had friends in Jacksonville.

Another young man who fell into Lathrop's, after being graduated from Illinois college, was Thomas J. Pitner. Somehow he did not appreciate the business, unless it was waiting on the ladies. So he studied medicine, and he since become well known in ameliorating various features of human ailments, by medicine or by generous contributions from his own pocket.

Another of Mr. Lathrop's "boys" was George N. Loomis. He blew in from Vincennes in the spring of 1861 and pretty soon went into the store, where he made a specialty of being agreeable to the young ladies. As a side line, he became a singer. He finally drifted into newspaper work on the Journal, then took over a paper in Quincy.

From there he sailed up the Mississippi to the Minneapolis Tribune, and finally became a musical advance agent. He now lives in the East somewhere. He accumulated a wife in his increasing days, and, at last accounts was in the grip of his wife, and himself and the wife.

Jenkins, Catlin and Risley. Robert Hockenull had a big drug store here in 1857. A young fellow named D. Putnam Jenkins, generally called "Putt", clerked there then. His father lived in the brick house on the "St. Louis Road," where J. Weir Ellett lived a few years ago. Charles Augustus Catlin, a boy of 17, also assisted at Hockenull's. He had a heavy bass voice, and sang in the choir of the old "First" church, where his employment led with his flute. Catlin left for the army, as lieutenant, and came back as captain.

John W. Risley was a dapper young man who clerked for Mr. Black, on the north half of the west side of the square. He, too, went into the army, becoming lieutenant, and went West after the war.

Wm. D. Crowell. It was pretty hard to be in Jacksonville, before the war, and not know Wm. D. Crowell, who clerked for his brother-in-law, J. C. Smith, who had a golden bee-hive as his sign, next door to Hockenull's on the east side.

Gov. Yates appointed Crowell, commander of the State Arsenal, at Springfield, with the title of colonel. Col. EXCURSION STEAMER STRANDED ON SAND BAR

Steamer St. Paul Carrying Over 1,000 People Runs Into Sand Bar.

St. Louis, Aug. 14.—The steamer St. Paul carrying more than 1,000 excursionists, mostly women and children, has been stranded on a sand bar in the Mississippi river, eight miles north of here since four o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Several boats have been dispatched to the marooned steamer and reports reaching here this morning said the excursionists remained calm all night and many of them danced until early this morning.

The St. Paul is owned by the Steamship Line and is said to be one of the largest excursion boats on the Mississippi. Officials of the Steamship Line said the low river stage was the cause of the trouble.

The Steamship Line excursion steamer St. Paul with more than 1,000 excursionists aboard, docked at its pier here this morning at seven o'clock after having been stranded on a sand bar in the Mississippi river eight miles north of here since four o'clock yesterday afternoon.

Several boats early this morning succeeded in getting the St. Paul off the bar. The excursionists are said to have remained calm throughout the experience and made the best of the delayed outing by dancing far into the night.

NEW REGISTRATION

DAY—AUGUST 24

About 150,000 Men Will Register Then—Will Be No New Drawings to Establish Order of Liability.

Washington, Aug. 14.—There will be no new drawing to establish the order of the liability of the new registrants. The marshal general's office announced tonight that the 1200 numbers drawn for the June 5 registrants would be sufficient to cover the August 24 registrants in the largest district in the country.

About 150,000 young men will register. Most of them will qualify for Class One, and therefore, will join the army probably within a month after their names are recorded.

Telegraphic orders to local authorities to arrange for the registration have already been distributed. President Wilson's proclamation exempts the territories of Alaska, Hawaii and Porto Rico from the registration temporarily but a later day will be fixed for these. Only men in the armed service are exempt from registration. It also was announced that the suggested date, Sept. 5, would not be the day for the registration of men from 18 to 45, even if congress passes the bill in time because several of the largest states in the union hold primary elections on that date.

BRITISH CASUALTIES.

ILLINOIS TROOPS IN FIGHTING NEAR SOMME

The 131st Infantry of the 33rd Division Was Formerly the Old 'Dandy First' of Illinois Guards

Washington, Aug. 14.—The 131st Infantry of the 33rd United States division has been engaged in the fighting north of the Somme and particularly in the repulse of an enemy counter-attack at Chilly, General March said today at his semi-weekly conference with newspaper correspondents. This regiment alone captured three officers, 150 men and seven 105 millimeter guns.

The 131st regiment is composed of Illinois National Guardsmen and it attached to the 66th brigade of infantry in the 33rd Division, commanded by Major-General George Bell. The troops were trained at Camp Logan, Texas.

Springfield, Ill., Aug. 14.—The 131st Infantry of the 33rd division, referred to by General March as having been engaged in fighting in the Somme front, according to records in the office of Adjutant General Dickson here, was formerly the old "Dandy First" Infantry, Illinois National Guard. Colonel Joseph B. Sanborn was in command.

Fred S. Pearce of Low Point spent Sunday at his home here.

OPPOSE EACH OTHER FOR THIRD TIME

F. B. Willis and James M. Cox Will Oppose Each Other for Governorship of Ohio.

Columbus, O., Aug. 14.—For the third time in six years, Frank B. Willis, Republican of Delaware and James M. Cox, Democrat, will oppose each other for the governorship at the November election in Ohio this year.

This was decided at the statewide primary election held yesterday. Willis, an avowed rival, defeated Edwin Jones of Jackson, and John H. Arnold of Columbus, by from 25,000 to 50,000 votes, according to estimates based on complete but unofficial returns from approximately half the precincts of the state. Cox and all the defeated state officers were renominated without opposition.

Cox and Willis will meet again this fall each with a victory to his credit. In 1914 Willis defeated Cox, then governor. In 1916 Cox defeated Willis, then governor.

ITALIAN PUBLISHES SCIENCE BOOK ON WAR

Eugenically in All Fighting Countries War Will Be an Improvement.

London, Aug. 3.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—An Italian scientist in a book just published on the subject of war and population says that there will be in England 121 women between the ages of twenty and forty four to every 100 men between the same ages if the war ends next year. In 1910 the proportion was 108 to 100.

In France there will be 124 women of these ages, the writer estimates, to every 100 men. In Germany where the sexes were almost evenly balanced before the war, the proportion will be 115 women to 100 men.

Eugenically in all the fighting countries the war will cause an improvement, the scientist believes because every man in taking a wife will have a larger selection of women to choose from and therefore he will be likely to choose the healthiest and strongest.

ILLINOIS SHIPPERS DISCUSS FREIGHT RATES

CHICAGO, Aug. 14.—One hundred representatives of Illinois shippers met here today to discuss a system for presenting to the federal railroad administration a true picture of the effect on Illinois shippers of proposed changes in freight rates and classifications.

The administration is said to have requested the information being sought by the conference. R. W. Ropiquet, of East St. Louis, is chairman of a committee which will determine how the evidence shall be gathered. The others present include Ralph Field of the Peoria Association of Commerce and Roy Williams, of the Cairo Association of Commerce.

OPPOSE WORK OR FIGHT ORDER IN NEW BILL

Washington, Aug. 14.—Organized labor's emphatic opposition to any work or fight provision in the new manpower bill extending the draft ages is expressed in a letter from Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor received today by members of the senate military committee.

OFFICIAL REPORTS REVEAL AMAZING EVENTS IN RUSSIA

Second: Tchitcherine stated that the allied military missions would not be allowed to depart as had already been promised.

Third: That civil persons arrested were hostages for the lives of Soviet members in territory occupied by the allies.

Tchitcherine said that these persons are civil prisoners arrested in accordance with the practices of war, for internment. He added that no responsibility could be assumed for their future safety because Great Britain and France had attacked Archangel without a declaration of war.

Mr. Poole stated he was without knowledge of what had taken place in the north but warned Tchitcherine that the peoples of the allied nations could not be intimidated and that the initiation of a system of reprisals by the Soviet government could only result in individual members of the government being held personally responsible and in the loss by the Bolshevik cause of whatever respect it might now have in the minds of the civilized world.

A fourth message from Mr. Poole, dated August 6, stated that the authorities forcibly entered the consulates general of France and England on the afternoon of the 5th and arrested the consuls general and their staffs.

At three o'clock on the morning of the 6th, the consuls general and part of their staffs were released after the untiring good offices of the Swedish consul general. Mr. Poole stated that a guard remained around both consulates and would not permit British or French nationals to approach.

Mr. Poole pointed out that these acts occurred immediately following the solemn assurances given by Tchitcherine that all persons having diplomatic or consular character would be respected.

"Feeling that there were no assurances that the American consulate general would not be violated at any moment he destroyed his codes and records. This and the general situation made it impossible to carry on his functions and he accordingly asked the Swedish consul general to take over the protection of the American interests. Allied consuls were doing likewise.

Mr. Poole added that departure would probably be by way of Petrograd and Stockholm. At the instance of the Swedish consul general the German embassy had already recommended to the German government the issuance of the necessary safe conduct.

A fifth report stated that Mr. Poole had received from Mr. Norman Armour, secretary of the American embassy whom Mr. Francis left behind at Volodga when he went to Archangel, a telegram which stated that an assistant from Kedroff, commissioner of the people had called to see him, and apparently representative of the Soviet government.

The emissary said that he had been instructed to ask the diplomats to go to Moscow as the Soviet authorities were unable to answer for their safety in Volodga. After expressing their thanks for the solicitude shown Mr. Armour and his colleagues referred to the agent of the Soviet government.

Mr. Poole had temporary charge of American as well as English and Japanese interests.

The American minister to Sweden has reported to the department of state that he had been informed by the Swedish foreign office that on August 5th, the Swedish consul general at Moscow had temporary charge of American as well as English and Japanese interests.

Higher Wages.
Washington, Aug. 14.—Higher wages recently granted shop men has resulted in calling to railway employment more than 5,000 workmen who had left previously to accept jobs with higher pay. This has stimulated railroad work on cars and locomotives and the railroad administration expects to clean up before winter the entire accumulation of thousands of damaged cars on sidings for the last year.

Many French Women
No in Industry.
Paris, Aug.—Women employed in all branches of industry in France number 626,000, according to an official report. This compares with 487,000 employed in normal times. This increase is due almost entirely to the employment of women in metal industries, chiefly in munition works. The weight which women can be required to carry in factory work is limited by law to 55 pounds.

Women are widely employed for the inspection of finished goods, they examine separate parts for automobiles; verify light shells, fuses and grenade plugs. They inspect big shells externally and internally by the use of electric lamps and they test the caliber using complicated measuring apparatus and microscopes. They nail up cases of all kinds, even cases for airplanes and automobiles. The women supervise the buildings where men are at work and keep them clean.

Exchange Places
At the Hague.
The Hague, Aug.—H. G. Chilton, first secretary of the British Legation here leaves for Washington to exchange places with A. Robertson, first secretary of the British embassy there, who is coming to the Hague.

Mr. and Mrs. Chilton, the latter who was Miss O'Brien of Michigan, were popular in wide circles at the Hague.

THE REGISTRATION OF WOMEN FOR WAR WORK

Women who will have charge of registration work next Saturday will be in the use of this afternoon. Arrangements are practically perfected for the Saturday registration but some final plans will be discussed today. The chairman of the state registration department recently said: "If properly directed, the registration department in every community will offer constantly new and valuable opportunities for service, and even for personal sacrifice. For the individual along with this service there will come new insight, new social understanding and broader and finer sympathy."

We have made many astonishing discoveries in the use of electric cards. We have found a woman who had hitherto rendered no public service, isolated perhaps because of ignorance and poverty, fatigue and discontent, on one side of the social scale, or because of self-indulgence and boredom on the other. Through registration joined in some common service. In the women's committee whose ranks are daily augmented thru registration by new recruits, enrolled under the impulse of true patriotism, the work and the aspiration keep step. The problems are new, the ideals are new, the individuals enlisting to carry them out are freshly recruited and strangely brought together."

Miss Helen Bennett has returned to her home in this city after a pleasant visit of three weeks with friends in McLeansboro, Ill., and St. Louis, Mo.

Home from Trip.
Mrs. Mae Black, proprietor of Ye Bookie Shop has returned from a two weeks vacation and buying trip. Most of her time was spent in St. Louis.

Arrived Home Again.
Mrs. W. F. Timmerman of 869 North Main street received a telegram yesterday from her son Earl J. Reed saying he had arrived in the United States again after his third trip across the big pond. He is one of the steamer Princess Matkaia.

Hospital Aid Society Meeting Today.
There will be a meeting of the hospital aid society at the hospital building at 2 p. m. today. A full attendance is earnestly requested as much work is to be done.

Notice.
All persons knowing themselves indebted to the late C. T. Litter, will please call at the store in Litterberry and settle their accounts as soon as possible.

RAILROADS WORK BY UNIFIED PLAN

Numerous C. P. & St. L. Employees Changed From Springfield to Chicago and Bloomington.

The plans of the railroad administration in consolidating the management of roads have been noted in a number of instances. The C. P. & St. L. and the Burlington station here are now under management of the Burlington agent and in Springfield some C. P. & St. L. business has been combined with the Illinois Central and some with the Chicago & Alton. Generally speaking, there is more of union between the C. P. & St. L. and the C. P. & St. L. management than with other roads.

W. C. Hurst, who has been general manager of the C. P. & St. L., has now been transferred to Bloomington and will immediately enter upon his duties as superintendent of the Chicago & Alton road. J. B. Clifford, who has been chief clerk for Mr. Hurst, is also to go to Bloomington. Other Springfield employees of the C. P. & St. L. who will enter the C. & A. service are C. I. Habberg, timekeeper of motive power; Fred Schepp, engine man timekeeper, and Miss Barnee, clerk of maintenance.

The general offices of the C. P. & St. L. will be removed from Springfield to Chicago, where they will form part of the Chicago & Alton offices. The chief dispatcher and trainmaster's offices in Springfield will be moved to the Chicago & Alton offices in Springfield.

Point Church Picnic

At Nichols Park.

Last evening a large number of the members and congregation of the Point M. E. church motored to Nichols park to enjoy a delightful time. All the facilities of the park were afforded them and they made the best use of them. A fine supper was fully enjoyed by all who knew what good things always come from the direction of the Point which boasts so many fine cooks. At a late hour the pleasure seekers departed well pleased with their picnic and ride.

The Kewpie Klan Girls Have a Picnic.
For some time a pleasant organization of young ladies known as the Kewpie Klan used to meet occasionally and enjoy themselves in various ways enjoyable and profitable but some of the number left and the club stopped meeting. Tuesday two of the absent members were in the city.

Miss Irene Park of Springfield and Miss Vita Muller of Bluffs and they were guests at a delightful picnic at Nichols park where they went to eat supper and have a good time generally. The time was spent recalling former days and enjoying the present most thoroughly. Those present, in addition to the two mentioned were Mrs. Homer Bradley, Misses Ethel Jones, Rosa Walsh, Hildegarde Sibert, Bertha Daggett, Louise Guyette, Celeste Eldridge, Ethel Taylor and Edith Taylor.

VISITING IN TENNESSEE

The Morristown, Tenn., Evening Mail contains the following article:
"Mrs. George Ball and daughter, Miss Lucy Ball of Jacksonville, Ill., who have been enjoying a stay of several months in the mountains of East Tennessee, have gone to Knoxville for a short visit before returning home. Miss Ball read a paper 'The Joy of Mrs. Witts' at the annual reunion of the Witt family held June 28th on the 101st birthday anniversary of Mr. Wilson Witt of this city."

Letters of Interest from Jacksonville Boys in the Country's Service.

JOHN SLOAN WRITES MOTHER
11 Corps, American E. F.
Care A. P. O. S. No. 18,
B. E. F.
June 27, 1918.

Dear Mother:
Just a little note to say that all is well, am healthy and contented etc. It has been a little longer than usual since I wrote you last but in the meantime I wrote to Agnes and I know that will serve the purpose quite as well. Have just finished reading a long and very interesting letter from Mary, which I enjoyed very much. Have had one letter from James and I answered it at once, but have not heard from him since. Also would like to hear from Francis. I often wonder how well he has taken up with the army ways. Hope he is happy, also that you do not miss them too much at home. It is too bad that Francis could not have stayed there with you.

Judging from the wonderful work of the Italian armies on their frontier, we all may be home sooner than we had anticipated. If Russia had not gone to pieces, I think the German army would be a thing of the past now.

To what branch of the service is Francis? Since they did not care to take advantage of my tip to get into an officers' training camp, why didn't they choose the aerial service? It is the best of all the various branches; the medical corps duties are the most strenuous of them all; no one realizes this more than the boys who have had to carry stretchers day and night during a big push. I am away from that now, but I certainly would be much obliged to the man who will transfer me to the aviation corps.

I have not carried this letter around in my pocket for four days but will make another effort to finish it. No big stunts are being pulled off just now, both sides evidently being satisfied with minor operations, which are breaking very favorably for the allies. We are not contemplating any big offensives on our side, ours is a waiting game. The Hun have been massed in front of our lines for some weeks now, but have done nothing; the delay is probably due to an epidemic which is raging in their army.

FROM TRACY FISHER

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Fisher of Murrayville have the distinction of having three sons in the U. S. army service. One son, Lee Fisher, has been in France since last October and two other sons, Glenn and Tracy Fisher, left with the Morgan county boys on June 28. The following letter was written to his parents recently by Tracy Fisher, who is now located at Newport News, Va., Aug. 4, 1918.

Dear Papa and Mama:
Arrived here safely last night about 8 o'clock and Glenn and I are both well and feeling fine and hope every one at home is the same. We won't be here long so don't write until you hear again, and if you don't hear as often as you think you ought, don't worry because we are all O. K., as long as you don't hear.

We certainly had a nice trip and will tell you my experience when I get home. Expect to be on the move again by the time you receive this letter, but don't know where we will go. I sure got my wish as I wanted them to keep me on the go and I think I have been. Was at Camp Taylor 20 days, and at Camp Beauregard, La., just ten days and now at Newport News, which is the nicest place of the three. I can sit here on my cot and look out across Chesapeake Bay which is a small bay off of the Atlantic, and can see steamboats go up and down the bay.

We certainly have a nice bunch of officers, they are fine as they can be. Tell Tina I never got her box but thank her just the same and will write to her and Mae just as soon as I get to where I am going and get my new address. Well as this is all the paper I have at present I will close. With love to all, I am

Your loving son,

Tracy Fisher.

Carl Spencer Likes Army.
Carl Spencer who was inducted into government military service recently and sent to the Wendell Phillips Institute, Chicago, for training, writes his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Spencer as follows:

Chicago, Ill., July 13, 1918.

My Dear Mother and Father:—I am dropping you these few lines to let you know I am feeling fine and hope these lines will find you both feeling the same. I spoke to you in my last letter about coming up here. We will be here about eight or ten days, so if you are coming you had better come right away. You can stop with Aunt Martha as she is real close. I am broke and tell papa to send me a box of Fenwood or Mac's Own cigars. We gave a show or minstrel last night and it was a grand success. I was one of the musical directors. I didn't sing but used my horn in the orchestra. Alonzo is well and looking fine. I seen all of the folks yesterday. Now answer real soon and let me know what you are going to do. Hoping to hear from you real soon, I am,

Your son, CARL.

FUNERALS

Hennessey
The funeral of the late Thomas W. Hennessey of 824 Doolin avenue, took place yesterday morning at 8:30 o'clock at the Church of Our Savior in the presence of a large and sympathetic audience gathered to pay a last tribute of respect to the memory of one who stood high in the estimation of all who knew him. Solemn high mass was said by Father Sloan and all the services were very impressive. Many flowers also decked the casket of the deceased.

At the close of the services the remains were borne to Calvary cemetery by Messrs. Herman Lehr, Michael McGinnis, Robert Clifford, John Buckley, George Pulaski and John Clancy, followed by a long procession of friends. The Knights of Columbus acted as honorary bearers and escort. Those attending from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Gaul of Bloomington, Mrs. Georgia Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Davis of Cincinnati. Mrs. Raymond Davis is a daughter of Mr. Hennessey.

Hale.
Funeral services for Miss Lena Hale were conducted from the Missionary Baptist church at Gillespie Saturday morning at 11 o'clock, in charge of Elders J. A. Modlin of Gillespie and S. Flannigan of Missouri. The floral tributes were many and beautiful and these were cared for by Mrs. Marie Brainer, Mrs. Claude Franklin of Grace Chapel and two young women of Gillespie. Among those in attendance at the services from White Oak Grove neighborhood, the former home of the deceased, were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brainer, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Franklin, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brainer, Mrs. Hannah Brainer and son Newel, Mrs. Charles Loughary, Mrs. Fred Brainer, Misses Edith Hale and Marie Mason.

Deceased was born in Granger county, Tenn., April 4, 1900, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Hale, and was at the time of her death aged 18 years, 4 months and 3 days. She is survived by her parents, five sisters and two brothers. Two brothers and one sister preceded her in death some years ago. On Saturday, August 5, the deceased became seriously ill and was removed to a hospital in St. Louis for treatment. There an operation was performed in the effort to save her life, but this proved unavailing and the end came a few hours later.

The father of the deceased, Elder Baxter Hale, is now serving the Primitive Baptist church in the White Oak Grove community, and the many friends of the family there regretted to learn of their bereavement.

GREAT LAKES STATION VERY INTERESTING

Jacksonville People Return from Trip to Northern Illinois—Floyd Williamson Gives Very Interesting Picture in Great Lakes Bulletin.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Cully and Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Black have just returned from an automobile trip to the Great Lakes Naval Training Station in Mr. Cully's car. They left Jacksonville Friday morning, August 9, about 7:30 o'clock, and spent that night in Joliet, after having made stops at Springfield, Lexington, Bloomington, Pontiac and several other cities along the route. The following morning they drove by easy stages to Chicago and arrived at the Great Lakes Station at noon. They were met there by Clyde Black, who had 48 hours' liberty. This is an order which means the same as a furlough and given to the men for a few hours' duration. The party went to Waukegan, a few miles distant, where they were quartered at the Genesee hotel.

Clyde Black is a member of Co. J, of the second regiment. He is a land machine mate, which means mechanical man for seaplanes. He is expecting an early assignment for further instruction.

Visited Rantoul
The Jacksonville people had opportunity of visiting various interesting places in that locality and after viewing various departments at the Great Lakes Station, went to Fort Sheridan, and visited other places of interest. The return trip began Monday morning and was by a different route. They passed through Kankakee, Mokena and spent Monday night at Joliet. On Tuesday morning they visited the aviation field at Rantoul and later in the day the state university, where they spent an hour or two with Dr. Coffey. The trip in every way was a pleasant one and they had no car or tire trouble of any kind.

Floyd Williamson is in the publicity department at the Great Lakes Station. A recent issue of the Great Lakes Bulletin had an interesting article from his pen describing the marvelous picture of 40,000 Jackies as they appeared in "America's Answer." The spectacle was certainly one of marvelous patriotic interest. The sight of 40,000 of the sailor boys in uniform presenting the national colors was undoubtedly one to move even the most undemonstrative. Mr. Williamson's word picture in the Bulletin reads as follows:

(By F. E. Williamson.)
Eight thousand sailors in white were dotted among the 32,000 others in blue and blue caps on the main drill field yesterday morning forming the words, "America's Answer". Around the great square formation which covered nearly one half of the entire field, was a border of white, which gave the scene the appearance of a great painting framed with a white border.

Both moving and still pictures were taken for the committee on Public Information, and the pictures will be distributed first thru Great Britain and France, then will be shown in the United States.

The effects produced by the formation this morning were striking in every detail. Looking at the mass of men from the ground, or from the windows of buildings about the Station, they represented something more than a great mass of humanity.

Every man on the Station who was not engaged in necessary work was in the picture. Blue jackets began moving on the drill field at 8 o'clock. From all directions and camps men came in a steady stream until nearly 10 o'clock. From all directions and camps men came marching in blues and whites.

They took the faces and grained the few onlookers realize that "something" was being formed, but it was impossible to tell what the effect would be. But as the spectator stepped on the roof of the Administration Building, "America's Answer" greeted him in the form of 40,000 sailors.

The blues represented a mass while the men in whites formed the letters. The National Ensign and the Station colors were placed directly behind the words and added a touch of color to the picture. Lieutenant Commander A. C. Wilhelm, drill officer, was "director" of the picture. Each effect that he produced seemed better than the preceding one. When all men in blues bowed their heads to the ground, showing only the surfaces of their hats, and the men in whites waved their hats in the air, the few on the roof of the Administration Building thought the scene could not be excelled.

But when the 32,000 blue hats were waved in the air the effect before at the Great Lakes. White hats might represent a snow storm but there is nothing in nature that could represent the blue hats flying in the air.

Then the sailors started whistling and singing the "Missouri Waltz" and their bodies swung back and forth to the time of the music. The effect produced a gasp of admiration from even the most undemonstrative on-lookers. A few "dryland" sailors wondered if the ocean would look like that when they were placed aboard ship. Others said it looked like the waves of the ocean, so there must have been a "sea-going" atmosphere to the picture.

Italian Flag Next.
Then came the order "Break ranks on the double" and to the north, south, east and west the men scattered over the field, without order or precision. It would seem that it would have been impossible to get the men together in company formations to march back to their respective camps, but in less time than it has taken to write this story the drill field was cleared and the men were returning to their quarters.

This morning a picture of the Italian flag will be taken and the pictures will be continued until all the allied flags have been formed, as well as several other formations which are under consideration.

CASS COUNTY BOY MISSING IN ACTION

Scott Morris Reported Missing July 18. Parents Hopes Escape From Jail—News Notes of Interest.

Virginia, Aug. 14.—Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Morris residing in the eastern part of Cass county received a telegram Sunday from Washington, D. C., stating that their son, Scott Morris was missing in action on July 18th. Nothing more definite has been learned.

Private Morris was born and reared in Cass county and was 24 years of age, and had been in France about 3 months. His grief stricken parents have the sympathy of the entire community. One sister, Mrs. M. M. Hughes, residing in this city, had received a letter a few days previous to the telegram saying that he was well and in fine spirits. Three prisoners in the county jail are today enjoying a furlough. During the absence of Sheriff Sligh and family last evening they sawed thru the hinges of the door and made their escape about 9 o'clock last evening.

June Wayman was being held for the murder of Frank Norris, Charles McDonald for malicious mischief and the third whose name could not be learned was held for perjury. Up to this hour they have not been captured.

Mrs. Russel McGovern, who has spent several weeks at Kansas City, Mo., where her husband is stationed, arrived home today. Mr. McGovern has been assigned a position as instructor for the present at the Rake Auto school and did not leave with the contingent which departed from that city Tuesday.

Miss Olive Fielder left today for a visit with Pittsfield friends. A. E. Taylor of Taylorville spent a few days on business in this city and returned home Monday.

George Aldridge's class of boys of the Presbyterian Sunday school spent Tuesday at Lake Matanzas.

Laird Daniels resigned his position at the grocery store of J. C. Bailey in this city and accepted a similar position at Springfield.

Henry Monroe was a business visitor in Peoria Tuesday. The one week old infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Shanks died August 13th and funeral services will be held at the residence this morning. Burial will be in Walnut Ridge cemetery.

Mrs. Nelle Haskell of Pittsfield was called to this city by the illness of her father, John Reynolds who suffered a paralytic stroke Thursday of last week.

Twin babies, a son and a daughter, were born Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Reither in this city.

Mrs. Henry Coleman is a patient at the Springfield hospital. Relatives in this city have been notified of the illness of Mr. J. F. Tureman, a former townsman at his home in Columbia, Tenn.

Hugh Braden is ill at his home on Cass street with pneumonia.

Charles Paul was a Peoria visitor Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hiles and son Leo left in their car this morning for a visit with relatives at Atlanta, Kan., and other points.

Mrs. May Marshall who is employed at the State Hospital in Jacksonville spent Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Needham.

Mrs. Bertha Collins and sons completed a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Heusted and left for her home in Omaha, Neb., Saturday.

FLOWERS AT NICHOLS PARK

The park board has decided to try to supply the large beds at Nichols park with perennial flowers and all who have peonies, iris or other perennial flowers they are willing to donate will confer a favor if they will report the same to Secretary Brennan or Mrs. Wehl or Mrs. Hollinger. The park belongs to all of us and all have an equal opportunity to enjoy it and it seems reasonable to the board to ask these donations and a few from a good many persons would stock the beds.

Mrs. Oscar G. Snyder and daughter Mrs. Hettie May Stump of Lima, Ohio, are guests at the home of Mrs. Snyder's parents, Capt. and Mrs. F. C. Taylor, 852 East State street. Mrs. Snyder formerly resided in Jacksonville having a home on Sandusky street. The husbands of both ladies are engaged in war work for the government.

ON WAY TO PARIS ISLAND.
James Barnes, who recently enlisted with the marines, telephoned his uncle, F. E. Farrell, yesterday that he would leave yesterday afternoon for Paris Island to take training. The Jacksonville young man was naturally greatly pleased that he was having no long stay in Chicago but would be sent immediately into active training.

DIED IN CHICAGO.
The funeral of Mrs. Daniel Davis, daughter-in-law of Mrs. James R. Scott, was held in Chicago Tuesday. The deceased had been ill for a considerable period and her death was not unexpected. Miss Maggie Davis had been in Chicago for the past three weeks on account of the illness of Mrs. Davis.

Geraldine and Dorothy Bowen of Georgia are visiting with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bowen, 403 S. Lincoln avenue. They will remain here for the chautauqua, camping with their grand parents.

BOOSTER TRIP FOR RED CROSS PICNIC

Winchester "Boosters" Visit Number of Adjacent Towns Wednesday Afternoon. Interest of Event to be Held August 22nd—Other Items of Interest of Winchester and Vicinity.

Winchester, Aug. 14.—About sixty Winchester people made the Red Cross picnic booster trip Wednesday. Ten automobiles lined up for the journey this afternoon and left the city about 3:30 o'clock. The event was a success in every way and also it necessarily entailed a good deal of hard work and some personal sacrifices the trip was worth the effort as it impressed upon the citizens of all the places visited that Winchester is going to have the biggest picnic of the year at Monument Park, August 22nd.

The motor cars making the trip were owned by Claude Thomas, Fritz Haskell, E. J. Frost, Albert Hainsfurther, Melvin Murray, Joseph Roark, George W. Woodall, John Thompson, Ornsby Dawson and J. C. Grout. The itinerary included: Manchester, Roodhouse, White Hall, Patterson, Glasgow, and Alesay.

At each point stopped the double quartette from here sang and Rev. W. R. Johnson made a brief address. The "publicity drive" was in charge of William Wainwright, chairman of the advertising committee; E. E. Watt, chairman of the executive committee, also made the trip.

Mrs. Cooper Dies.
Mrs. Weltha Cooper, wife of the late Samuel Cooper, passed away at her home in the north part of town at 10 o'clock Tuesday evening, after an illness extending over a long period of time, but she had been bedfast only about three weeks preceding her death.

Mrs. Cooper was born Oct. 29, 1848. Two children preceded her in death. The following children survive: Mrs. Florence Stagle, Mrs. Jacob Hardy and Mrs. Myrtle Southwell, all of Winchester, Bert Cooper of Beardstown, Clifford Cooper of Alesay, and Herbert Cooper of Chicago. The funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at three o'clock at the Methodist church in charge of Rev. C. W. Casely.

For Red Cross Fund.
Melvin Murray has placed a red cross at the entrance of the Red Cross rooms here and wishes every one having old inner tubes, castings, or other articles which have been used but could be resold to have them on the cross. In this way quite a sum of money could be raised for Red Cross work. In a number of western cities this plan has been tried and used to good advantage.

Now Forming Class.
A class of first aid work is now being formed by Red Cross workers. Any one wishing to enter this class will please give their name to Miss Nellie Lashmet. The class will be started right away so that it behooves all who contemplate entrance into this work to act at once. Physicians will be in charge and act as instructors.

Has Double Misfortune.
William Eddings has been pursued by considerable misfortune of late. He is recuperating at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Eddings because of a broken left arm, which injury he sustained in a fall from a scaffold at Peoria, Tuesday morning he had the added bad luck to step on a nail which penetrated his right foot to a considerable extent. He now has to make progress as best he can with an arm in a sling and on one crutch. It is to be hoped that he has lost his "jinx" and that he will speedily regain his health.

News Notes.
Andrew Wilson of Peoria is visiting friends here after an absence of thirty years.

Mrs. Douglas Tankersley left here Tuesday for Jacksonville where she will visit relatives. She expects to attend the state fair in Springfield before returning home.

AN APPRECIATION OF HARRY B. MYERS.
"The Sample Case," C. T. official publication, in the August issue has a picture of the late Harry B. Myers, with an appreciation of his U. C. T. work. One paragraph reads as follows: "Probably no other man was so largely responsible for the present well being of Council No. 132 as Brother Myers. He was a charter member of the council; nursed it thru its uncertain infancy; directed its course to maturity, and has always been its guide and protector. He was a Past Grand Councilor of Illinois and for the past twelve years has represented the state organization in the Supreme Council. He was our best authority on U. C. T.ism, a court of last resort on knotty problems confronting the local council. Brother Myers' loss will be felt not only in the local Council but fully as much in the State and National organizations. He was also a prominent member of the Media Guild of the Bagmen."

FILES SUIT FOR DIVORCE.

Susan J. Cohagen by her attorney William M. Haigrove has filed suit in the circuit court for divorce from her husband, Elmer J. Cohagen. The bill sets forth that they were married at Winchester, October 4, 1906 and lived together until August 12, 1916. Mrs. Cohagen alleges extreme and repeated cruelty and threats to kill. She also asks that the defendant be enjoined from disposing of a half interest in lot 12, Askew and Springers' addition to Jacksonville which plaintiff had previously deeded to him and that the deed be declared null and void.

WRITES FROM PALO ALTO.
Lieut. E. L. Crouch is now at the base hospital at Camp Fremont, Palo Alto, Cal., according to information which has just reached this city. The weather there is cool and pleasant, a fire being necessary in the wards almost every morning. Lieut. Crouch writes that the division now located at the camp is expecting soon to be sent to Siberia, but he expects to remain at Palo Alto for an indefinite period.

CARD OF THANKS.
We wish to thank the many friends for the kindness shown at the death and funeral of our mother, Mrs. Mary A. Coss. Also for the beautiful floral offerings and to the singers who so generously furnished their services. Mrs. Edward McEvers, Miss Mattie Core.

When Was Your Battery Tested?

How long has it been since you had a line on the inside condition of your battery?

A month? Six weeks?

If it's any more, you're taking chances.

Don't you want to know it if you're starving your battery—or mistreating it?

There's only one way to tell—by test. You can make it yourself or we'll do it free.

We'll be glad to show you the "How" of this sample test, and to tell you about Threaded Rubber Insulation—the most important battery improvement in years.

SOX LOSE FIRST OF SERIES TO BOSTON

Jones Holds Chicago to 7 Hits—
Scott's All Round Playing Was
Sensational—Cleveland Defeats
New York—Other American League Games.

Boston, Aug. 14.—Jones held Chicago to seven hits today and Boston won 5 to 3, beating Russell for the first time this season. Scott's triple in the sixth drove over a run and he later scored. His all-around play was sensational.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS JOINED IN PICNIC

Schools of Concord, Arenzville and McKendree Chapel unite in Merry-Making at Nichols Park—A Day Happily Spent By All Present.

For several years the three Sunday schools of Concord have united in a picnic at Nichols park and this year they invited the schools of Arenzville and McKendree Chapel to join them but unfortunately for the picnic, the good for the fields, the rain deterred most of the Arenzville and McKendree Chapel people from attending and a good many from Concord failed to show up, so, as it was, there was a large gathering and the automobiles made an imposing array as they rolled into the park yesterday morning.

The superintendents of the schools are: Concord, M. P. Daniel; McKendree Chapel, William Burrus; Arenzville, M. E. Bert Wood; Concord, M. E. Elmer Plank; Concord Christian, Roy Abernathy.

As is the case with all visitors at the park, everything possible was done for the welfare and entertainment of the visitors and surely they had a good time. The various attractions on the playground were kept constantly in use while boating, swimming and all the facilities of the park were at their disposal. It is needless to say that the baskets were well filled with the delicious things of life and at noon the tables were prepared for the purpose were well loaded with a superb feast which was enjoyed by all. Various pastimes occupied the hours till starting home time came all too soon but an ominous cloud in the northwest recommended traveling and it was done. Those who supplied automobiles for the occasion were Alfred Brockhouse, Rev. Thomas Simons, E. M. Harmon, C. O. Baylis, Earl Abernathy, Roy Abernathy, Thomas Titus, Rev. C. G. Cantrell, Ora Ham, Mrs. Mecca Yeck, Roy Nickel, J. T. Kershaw, Cecil Weghoff, Henry Williamson, Joseph Williams, Cass Blimling, C. E. Rice, T. E. Hierman, James Schone and J. G. Berger. Mr. Rice and Mr. Harmon had nine passengers each and all the others were well loaded.

There was a fine gathering as will be seen from the list of cars furnished tho it is safe to say the attendance would probably have been double had the weather been favorable. It was rather cool owing to the rain that fell and that was pleasant.

AT OLD SALEM.

Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Patchen and their niece have gone to the Old Salem chautauqua and will occupy their cottage there for a period of days.

HIGH HONORS PAID TO HARRY STOUT

Sudden Death of Former Jacksonville Resident Brought Grief to Many Joplin People—Details of Drowning Given.

The Joplin, (Mo.) Globe in a recent issue gives additional facts about the drowning of Harry Stout, formerly a well known resident of this city. For a number of years Mr. Stout had been prominent in the business life of Joplin. As previously noted, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Thompson went to Joplin to attend the funeral services which were held Tuesday. The Globe gave the following facts about Mr. Stout's death and the arrangements for the funeral:

The body of Harry Stout, a Thirty second degree Mason and a Shriner, widely known cigar dealer, who was drowned in the Gasconade river near Monarch, Mo., Saturday afternoon, arrived in Joplin Sunday morning from Lebanon, Mo.

R. C. Bonham, who was with him when he was drowned, and coroner of Laclede county were unable to determine whether Stout was seized with cramps or died from heart disease.

The funeral will be held at 10 o'clock this morning. Paul Rose Croix services will be held at the Scottish Rite cathedral under direction of John F. Potts, Wise Master. Music will be furnished by the Scottish Rite quartet, under direction of Prof. T. B. Rogers. The body will lie in state at the cathedral from 9:30 till 10 o'clock. Pallbearers will be: J. B. Steiner, Harry Scherl, Arch McDonald, Arthur Russell, Roscoe Haughwout and W. L. Coleman. The Knights Templar will form an escort in charge of W. Ed. Johnson. Burial will be in Fairview cemetery.

With Fishing Party. Stout, with Arch McDonald and son, J. P. Keller and Bonham, all of Joplin, left Thursday morning by motor to a fishing point twenty-five miles southeast of Lebanon on the Gasconade river. They pitched their tent Friday, and becoming dissatisfied with that camping place, decided Saturday to look for a spot they had seen while coming down the river, two miles up stream from where they pitched camp.

Keller remained at the camp and the remainder of the party started to look for the new camping site. They found the spot where they were going to move their camp and started back down the stream, deciding to fish as they returned. The four decided to divide. McDonald and his son wading some distance ahead of Stout and Bonham.

The latter two made several good catches, and had lagged over a mile behind the other men when Stout, in casting, lost his wooden minnow, and it floated down stream. Later, a short distance down stream, Stout spied the lost minnow and requested Bonham to hold his rod. He started after the minnow and when he had waded as far as he could, he began swimming. He was known to be an expert swimmer. When within a few inches of the minnow he turned as if to float on his back, but immediately returned to his swimming position and suddenly straightened up as if he were trying to stand. He called to Bonham by a nickname he had given him many years previous, "Rock, help me!" he shouted, then disappeared beneath the surface of the water.

Body Never Appeared. Bonham plunged into the river and swam to the place where Stout had gone down. He waited for his companion to appear, but he never came to the surface after sinking. Bonham then dived for the drowned man, but he could not reach him.

"I knew then that Harry was gone," said Bonham. "So I swam back to shore and began yelling for help. After waiting several minutes, I marked the spot with my handkerchief and ran to a farm house a mile away. Finding no men there, I hurried after McDonald and his son, who by that time were back at camp. The women of the farm house ran to a neighbor's house a mile away and obtained the aid of a farmer and his two sons."

McDonald and Bonham obtained a boat and began searching for Stout's body, and had been looking only a few minutes when the farmer and his sons arrived in another boat with a long handled gig pole.

Less than forty-five minutes after the search began the body was found. It was lying face downward in about eighteen feet of water. The gig was twisted into the back of Stout's clothing and the body pulled to the surface. It had been in the water two hours and twenty minutes.

News Received Sunday Morning. The body was taken to an undertaking establishment in Lebanon and prepared for shipment to Joplin. It arrived in Joplin Sunday morning and was taken to the Frank-Sievers morgue and late Sunday afternoon was removed to his home, No. 708 Moffet avenue. News of the drowning was not received here until just before the body arrived.

Stout was 43 years old. He came to Joplin twenty years ago and engaged in business for himself and was successful. He once served as a member of the city council and had been a member of the park board the last few years.

He is survived by a wife and daughter Corinne; a small son, Walter, and a sister, Mrs. Thompson of Jacksonville, Ill., who arrived yesterday morning to attend the funeral.

"The Death List at Home." "The very high esteem in which Mr. Stout was held by his fellow citizens in Joplin was emphasized by the fact that editorial mention was made of his death. The Joplin Globe in the issue of August 13 had this editorial:

"Public opinion is not made in a barber shop, but it is interpreted there in no uncertain manner. Here is the nation's most popular free-for-all forum of unofensive discussion. There is always more of criticism than praise heard in a barber shop—yet occasionally another note is sounded."

"In one of Joplin's shops yesterday a perfect jargon of talk about the war and taxes and the city government was suddenly arrested when one of the patrons said 'Isn't it too bad about Harry Stout?' Immediately the various individual conversations came to an abrupt halt and every person in the shop had something to say about our late well known citizen. His untimely death was linked in the talk with that of C. W. Edwards, who was killed in an automobile accident a week ago, and the wealth of praise and expression of sincere sorrow over the passing of these two particularly well known and universally liked Joplin citizens amounted to an extraordinary tribute."

"I only hope," said one of the gray-haired patrons of the place as he passed out upon the street a few moments later, "that when I go, the men in that barber shop and the men who patronize it will express one-tenth the regret that they just now expressed over the loss of Harry Stout and Charles Edwards."

"To be loved of men is, after all, the paramount hope of real men."

LIEUT. ROSSELL
What about Italy, our Ally? What about the fighting in the Alps, and through the Trentino and Trieste countries? What about the Menace to Art in Italy? What about Italy in war time? What has Italy done, what is she doing, what will she do and how is she doing it?

Lieut. Rossell of the Royal Italian Army, formerly professor in an American college, recently returned from the fighting lines in sunny Italy, his native land, will answer these questions which interest all of us. With a captivating personality, a fine command of English and honorable service in the army, Lieut. Rossell is the best war speaker of his race in our country and brings us a message from the land of the Caesars.

A PLEASANT REUNION.
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shryack and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Foster of Blandville, Mo., arrived in the city recently by auto for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Foster of this vicinity. Mrs. Shryack is a sister of the Posters mentioned and also is Mrs. Harbison Robinson of the vicinity of Berea and the three families drove up Sunday and happily surprised Mr. and Mrs. Robinson. Needless to add all were welcome and proceeded to have a fine time. They were all in the city yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson specially advertising the fourth annual chicken fry of Berea church, August 29th.

CHARGED WITH LARCENY.
Lewey Birch was arrested yesterday on a warrant sworn out by Dr. E. L. Hill of Jacksonville a late hospital charging him with the theft of clothing. He was before Justice Dyer and was placed in jail to await a hearing the time of which has not been set.

DELIGHTFUL DOUBLE FAMILY REUNION

Fifth Annual Gathering of the Gibson-Tankersly Families at Nichols Park Yesterday.

Wednesday at Nichols park the fifth annual re-union of the Gibson-Tankersly families took place. The unpropitious weather kept a great many away but at it was a good sized gathering found their way to the park and proceeded to enjoy the day to the full.

Everybody was happy and each was ready to help the other have a good time and they succeeded admirably. Many who had not seen the others in a long time were delighted to clasp hands again and talk over the days gone by and discuss the present and future.

Of course dinner was a prominent feature of the occasion and all who know the ladies of the families present will at once realize what a feast of good things was spread on the tables under the trees. All did full justice to the excellent bill of fare and then a social time followed with a short informal program, reading of minutes and election of officers. The latter chosen were:

President—W. D. Gibson,
Vice President—Henry Loud, Virden.
Secretary—M. R. S. William Babb, Jacksonville.
Treasurer—Prince Coates, Riggston.

Among those present yesterday were: Mrs. Mary Loud and daughters, Agnes and Eloise; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Campbell and son, Springfield; Henry Loud, Virden; Mrs. Hattie Thomas and five children, Thomasville; George North, wife and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Tankersly, White Hall; Mr. and Mrs. George Hill; Kansas City; Luther Coultas, Mrs. D. D. Watt, Margaret, Edith, David and Thomas, Edgar Gibbs, wife and daughters, Martha and Nellie and son, Everett; A. C. McCullough and Irene; Allen McCullough, wife and daughter; Scott Gordon, wife and son Winchester; Mr. and Mrs. William Babb, Jacksonville; Miss Clara Gibbs, Mrs. Hattie Denhoff and two children, Plymouth; Mrs. Charles Gibbs and two children, Lynnville.

CARL HUGHETT BADLY INJURED.
Tuesday afternoon Carl Hughett, son of Elder and Mrs. Silas Hughett of West Leavette avenue, was badly injured by being struck by cars which were being switched in the yards of the C. B. & Q. road at Franklin. A special engine was sent down and brought the young man to Passavant hospital where he received suitable treatment. The young man has been a brakeman on the Q., for some time but even the most experienced will get hurt sometimes. At last accounts he was doing as well as could be expected tho he is badly bruised about the hips.

TO THE NATIONAL ENCAMPMENT.
L. Goheen expected to start this morning for Portland, Ore., to attend the annual national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic. He expected to be joined by Capt. W. A. Kirby and both are anticipating a fine time meeting many of their comrades of the great conflict.

A GOOD IMPROVEMENT.
The southeast corner of West and West State streets is being rounded off and several square feet of space added to the capacity of the streets where much needed. State street is unfortunately quite narrow from Church street east and all room possible is needed for automobiles and traffic generally.
